

Volunteer Cleaner Wanted

The Friends of Blake Museum, Bridgwater
Help keep our museum spick and span

About the Role

Our museum is a welcoming community space that preserves and shares local history. As a Volunteer Cleaner, you'll play a vital part in keeping the museum looking its best for visitors, researchers, and families. Your contribution helps us maintain a safe, pleasant, and inviting environment that reflects the pride we take in our heritage.

What You'll be Doing

Cleaning to museum standards, which will include the following:

- Light cleaning of public areas, including galleries, corridors, and the entrance, on a rotating basis
- Dusting display cases, ledges, and non-sensitive surfaces on a rotating basis
- Sweeping or vacuuming floors in visitor areas
- Cleaning a single toilet and small kitchen area
- Wiping down tables, chairs, and touchpoints as needed
- Reporting and maintenance issues to the museum Curator
- Helping ensure the museum is ready to welcome visitors each week

Please note: you will not be required to clean artefacts or handle any historic objects

What We're Looking For

- Someone reliable and friendly, with a positive attitude
- Comfortable working independently once shown the routine
- A person who takes pride in keeping spaces clean and presentable
- No previous experience required — just enthusiasm and willingness to help
- Someone who enjoys being part of a small, supportive team

Time Commitment

- Flexible hours to suit your commitments
- Every Monday. This regular weekly slot helps us keep the museum clean and ready for visitors

Why Volunteer with Us

- Support your local community and help preserve its history
- Meet new people and be part of a friendly, dedicated team
- Gain experience in a heritage environment
- Make a visible difference every week — your work directly improves the visitor experience
- Enjoy a meaningful, flexible role that fits easily into your routine

Interested? We'd love to hear from you!
